The Frog Prince's Royal Surprise

Jasper Tales

A Magical Fairy Tale

Once upon a time, in a faraway kingdom, there lived a beautiful princess named Sophia.

She loved nothing more than exploring the enchanted forest that surrounded her castle.

One day, Sophia was taking a walk and found a small frog sitting on a lily pad in the middle of a pond.

The frog looked up at her with big, round eyes and said, "Please, Princess, don't jump on me!

Sophia was surprised by the talking frog, but she gently picked him up and decided to take him back to the castle to show him to her parents, the king and queen.
