ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This book is truly the result of work by a gathering of amazing people who have inspired us to be better and to dive deeper and have supported us each step of the way. Without them, this book would not have been possible. This research along with the passion we share for the great topic would not exist.

So, we would like to thank our friends and colleagues who have inspired this book and have supported us through its writing.

Ms. Kankana Roy, a research scholar herself without whose "wake up call" this book wouldn't have seen the light of day; Dr. Yasmin Aziza for having assisted us with research while working on this book; Mr. Hira Yadav for also helping us with research; Professor Avirup Ghosh for helping us with some key edits; "AD" (as we know him fondly) whose relentless efforts to promote Moringa Oleifera in India has borne fruit and brought relief to countless people; you've inspired us to no end; and off course the wonderful team here at CASSIOPIAN whose work was every bit important as the rest. You have been amazing and great people to work with.

We would also like to extend our thanks to the excellent structural editors for this book: Dr. Karen Vieira from themedwriters.com. Dr. Vieira carries a PhD from The University of Florida College of Medicine and has years of experience in editing such content; and Ms. Karen Porters, a graduate from California Baptist University. They have added tremendous value to this book with their expertise. The notations to their respective edits can be found at the end of this book in the "Bibliography and References" section.

We love every one of you tremendously and hope this book serves as a symbol of our determination to change the world for the better.
