Hangman

In Hangman, player 1 thinks of a word or a short phrase.

For this example, the phrase is "I Love Apple Pie"

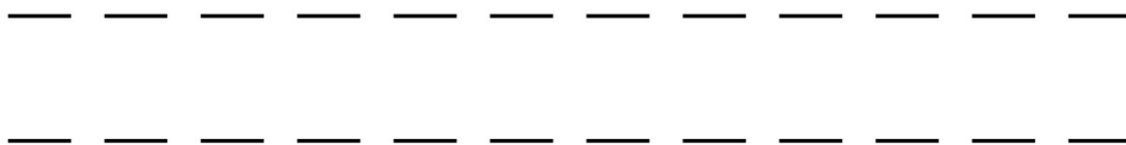

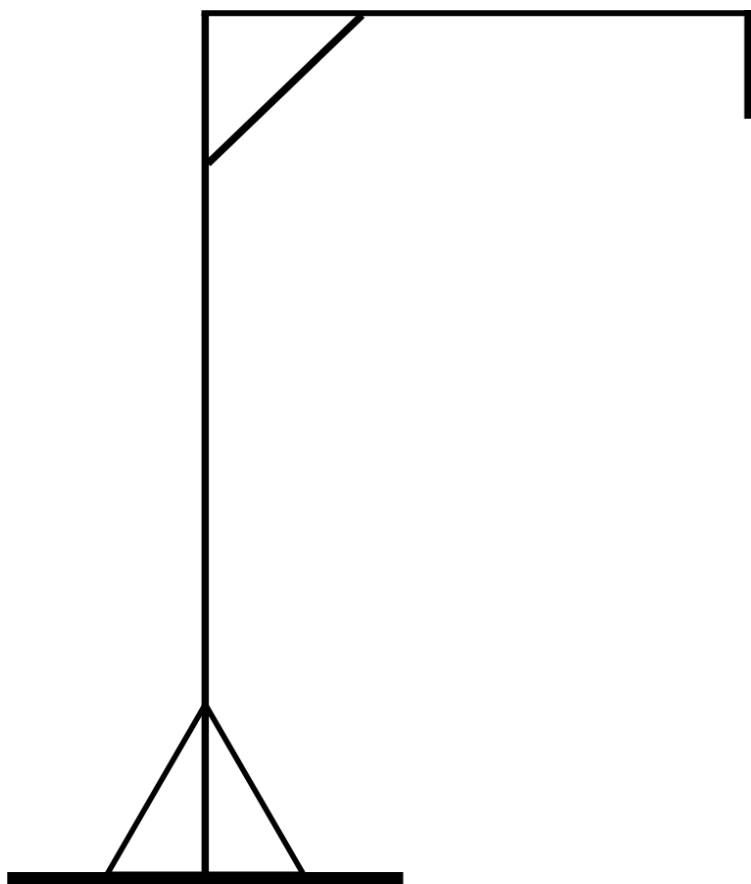

Player 2 needs to figure out what the phrase is by guessing letters.

When player 2 guesses a correct letter, player 1 fills in the letter and crosses it out where all the letters are shown.

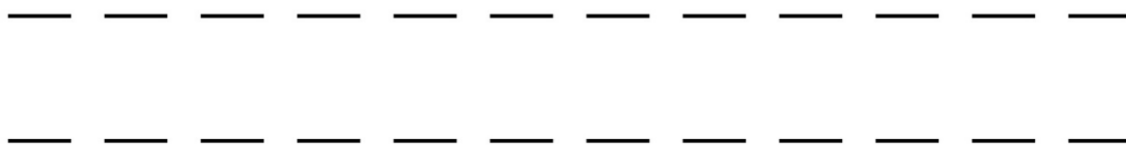

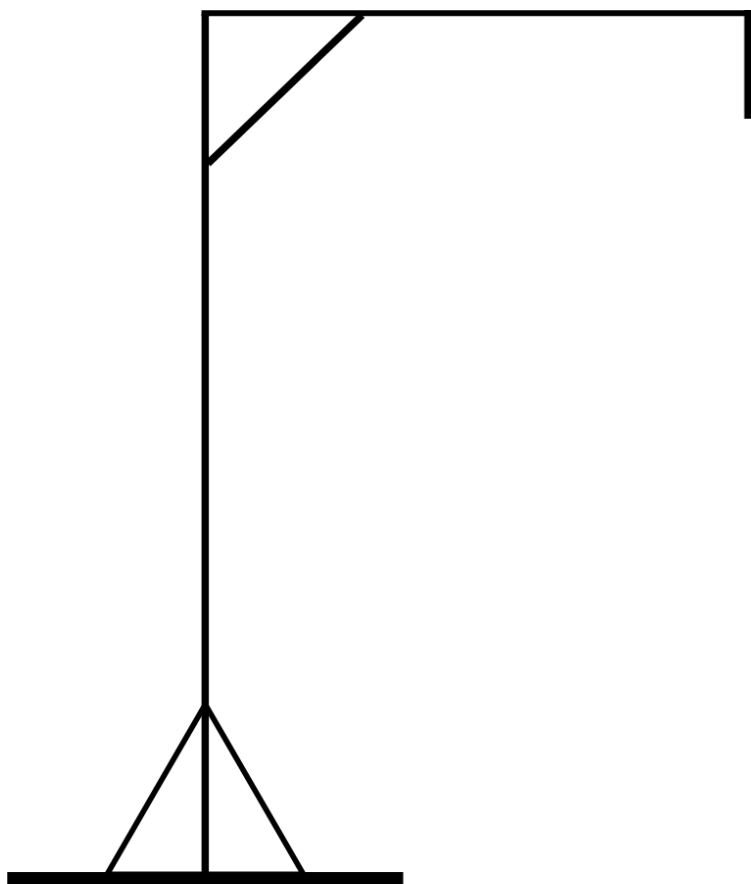

When player 2 guesses a wrong letter, the hanging man is drawn, one part at time for each wrong letter.

The hanging man has the rope, face, neck, two arms, torso, and two legs to be drawn in. Player 1 wins if all the hanging man parts are drawn in before player 2 guesses the whole phrase.

Player 2 wins if they guess the phrase (or correctly guess all letters) before all the hanging man parts are drawn.
