Dear Readers,

T came across the path of the two best friends and met them. They are from the country of Nigeria. Their names are Larry and Tony. Larry and Tony told me their life story. They are from Delta State, Nigeria. When they told me their life story, I was very moved to write their life story because they showed me their house.

They are living in the unfinished building with a hole on the top of the roof, no power, no water, no good bed, and uncomfortable living. I am very pity to know this life they are living. In Nigeria, everything there you must pay. No free WIFIs, no free cellular phone charging.

They have libraries but no freebies. In that situation they have, I really like to help these unfortunate souls. They are incredibly good people but life just very tough in their case. I am writing this book for them and to help them to make some money. This is the only way that I thought to help my friends.

I am hoping that all of you like this book and support us until the end of our journey! I am hoping that everyone who reads this book have pity to these kids.

Thank you very much and we really appreciate all of you and your help!

Love,

Elijah
