Introduction

Fine wines, private planes, and sandy beaches – these are just some of the things that many of us can only dream about. We want a life where we can go wherever we want, and eat whatever food whenever we want it. This life, however, doesn't come that easily; we have to get our hands dirty and work our way up.

A lot of people wake up in the morning hoping that it would be the day that they could turn their life around. There are those who would take a dollar and try their luck in the lottery, while some would take the usual path of working 9 to 5 and saving more. Some people try their luck investing in the stock market, while some work their way up on YouTube, and the list goes on and on.

In this book, we will talk about the most powerful habits of the rich and how you can apply each of them in your life. This book focuses on seven habits, specifically frugality, time consciousness, failing and learning from your mistakes, learning from other people's mistakes, saying no, firing up your ambitious side, and creating an insatiable thirst for knowledge. Each one of them will be discussed further in the later chapters. As you read, you will see a bunch of tips that can help you achieve your dreams and be rich. I highly encourage you to get a pencil and pad to jot down notes that you may find extremely useful. So these things can be applied to your daily life.

If you are inspired by the success of Jeff Bezos, Mark Zuckerberg, Bill Gates, Oprah Winfrey, Kylie Jenner, Warren Buffett, and all the billionaires out there, this book is for you.
