I want to thank my wife Ellen Star Dodd for her continued support of my work and the time it takes to publish these books.

My wife met Ericka in 2006 when their daughters were in the same kindergarten class. They instantly became great friends and still are today.

My wife thought Ericka would be the perfect character to be Ellen Star's best friend in this book.

Ellen Star is excited about her big day tomorrow. She is going to Pre-K School.

Ellen Star picked out her favorite outfit for her first day at Pre-K.

"It's time to get ready for bed," her mother said. You have a big day tomorrow at Pre-K.
