

The background is a vibrant blue with a variety of abstract geometric patterns. At the center is a large diamond shape with a vertical gradient from light orange to bright pink. Surrounding this diamond are several sets of concentric circles in white, orange, and black. There are also scattered circles of various sizes and colors (white, black, orange, pink). Wavy lines in light pink and white are positioned at the top and bottom edges. Small white stars are scattered in the lower half of the image.
