

The cover features a central title 'TANGRAM BUILDINGS' in large blue letters. Below the title is a large illustration of a house-like shape constructed from various colored tangram pieces: a yellow triangle at the top, a green triangle on the left, a purple triangle forming the main body, a brown triangle on the right, a pink square at the bottom right, and an orange triangle at the top right. The background is white with scattered line-art drawings of houses, trees, and clouds. Some houses are colored in shades of pink, blue, and yellow. There are also several small, colorful triangles (red, green, orange, purple, yellow) scattered around the central illustration.
