For the Love of Pizza

My name is Joe and I LOVE pizza (and wine)!

There probably is not a person around who does not know what a pizza is and has never tried it. However, the history of pizza is a little bit unclear. Tradition has it that pizza originated in Naples, Italy, yet some forms of pizza are dated back to ancient Greece.

A well-known baker is supposed to have created the pizza in honor of Queen Margherita using the beautiful colors of the Italian flag of red, green, and white. White being the mozzarella cheese, red being the sauce, and green, of course, the basil.

However, you eat it, cook it, or shape it, pizza is a great and wonderful tradition enjoyed by just about everyone.
