

By Linda Clay

BY LYNN CLAY

Woodcarving For

Beginners,

It's Easier Than You Think!

*What tools you need to get started,
plus the dos & don't of carving.*

Table Of Contents

01

Introduction

02

Equipment:
Only a few tools needed

03

Description of tools:
Carving Knives & Chisels

04

Sharpening Plates

05

Compounds & Leather Strop

06

Carving Glove

07

Thumb Guards

08

Glue & Accelerator

09

Sandpaper

10

White lead pencil

11

Cottonwood bark

12

Talent

13 -14

A 360-degree view of a carving

15 - 22

Safety First: The Dos and Don'ts of Carving

23

Where to get supplies

24

Author's Notes

25

Thank you & Back cover

Introduction:

When you think of wood carving, what springs to mind? If you're like most people, it's warm, rich wood tones that are carved into artistic, beautiful creations. You kind of get a warm fuzzy feeling just thinking about this. Right?

What springs to mind when asked, would you consider learning woodcarving?

Most people's eyes instantly grow wide, and they start shaking their heads, no. When asked why, they insist that it's super hard, and they have no talent.

They ask questions such as,

- What tools do you need?
- What kind of wood do you use?
- Isn't talent required for woodcarving?
- Where do you even start?

There are so many questions.
Let's talk about the answers.

In this E-book you will learn;

- An easy-to-understand view of each tool
- Carving Tips
- Pros and Cons
- Do's & Don'ts of woodcarving
- Where to get supplies

Don't worry, you can do this!