

CLEVER MONKEY

ANNA LEE

Once upon a time, in a dense and lush jungle, there lived a clever and mischievous monkey named Miko. Miko was known throughout the jungle for his intelligence and quick wit. He had a reputation for getting himself into all sorts of trouble, but he always managed to find a way out using his cleverness.

One sunny morning,
as Miko swung from tree to tree,
he noticed a group of animals gathered around something.
Curious as ever, he decided to investigate. To his surprise, the animals were looking at a massive mango tree laden with ripe, juicy mangoes.
