Mr. Waffles: A Lasha Apso Extraordinaire

Mr. Waffles, a Lasha Apso, is more than just a dog; he's a loyal, loving, and courageous companion to Tim. This remarkable canine's story begins at the Lasha Apso rescue center when he was just two years old. Despite his previous life as a show dog, which didn't align with his true nature,

Mr. Waffles still managed to win national awards as a puppy. When he first arrived at his new home with Tim, he was terrified and sought comfort in a small teddy bear. Tim had to work hard to rebuild Mr. Waffles' confidence. Even the slightest noise, like a delivery truck or a car passing by, would send him into a panic.

Mr. Waffles' Triumphs and Adventures

Tim's dedication to helping Mr. Waffles overcome his fears was unwavering. For three and a half years, he took the dog on six daily walks, patiently reassuring him whenever a car or lorry passed by. Gradually, Mr. Waffles' anxiety subsided.

While he wasn't interested in traditional games or toys, Mr. Waffles kept Tim entertained with his own unique brand of fun. His bravery was truly remarkable, as he would protect Tim's home from strangers and even alert him to potential dangers like a burning toaster or thieves attempting to break into a trailer.

One of Mr. Waffles' favorite pastimes was searching for hedgehogs, which he loved to point out without harming them. During family holidays, he would playfully jump into Tim's arms on windy staircases. He also learned to approach sheep quietly, allowing him to greet them without startling them.

Mr. Waffles' story is a testament to the power of patience, kindness, and unconditional love. His journey from a terrified rescue dog to a brave and loving companion shows that with the right care, even the most challenging problems can be overcome.

Mr Waffles is still alive to this day aged 19
